Latest News from Georgia.

From the Constitutionalist, Nov. 29.

THE SITUATION.

Some excitement prevailed, on Sunday morning, in consequence of rumors which gained volume as they progressed from one gossip to another. Towards night everybody simmered down to the most perfect quietude, and we failed to discover an individual who did not feel a trifle amazed at his morning alarm, and acknowledge that his fancy had conjured up more phantoms than there are Yankees in the State of Georgia.

"Shadows on Sunday
Struck more terror to the soul of Tompkins
Than could the substance of 10,000 Feds,
All armed in shoddy, and led by Demon Sherman.

A raiding party struck the Waynesboro railroad at Waynesboro', destroying the depot and a train of freight cars. This party numbered about 150 all told, and, if vigorously met by the people of that region, might have been driven off or captured. As it was, they had pretty much their own way, until a certain checkmate was put upon them from another quarter. We are informed that quite a handsome supply of raiment and silver plate was consumed with the captured train.

General Wheeler came up with several thousand of Kilpatrick's men on Sunday morning, near the Waynesboro' road, defeated and drove them for three miles. At last accounts, they were getting penned by Wheeler, and had gone to dirt digging. This force is officially reported as 'much scattered and easily handled."

There has been no enemy within twelve miles of the Georgia railroad, and the trains will resume their regular schedule.

The enemy is narrowly watched by the vigilant eye of our commanding general.—Every movement of Sherman is known to him, and the proper dispositions will be made to foil and destroy the plans of the audacious Yankee. Our citizens should be thoroughly assured that there is no doubt or hesitancy on the part of the authorities, and that everything is progressing silently and surely for their benefit and protection. General Bragg is an earnest and quiet worker; a skilled and experienced military artist; a tenacious and imperturbable adversary; a pure patriot undisturbed by babble and invincible to the last. We feel that our cause is safe in his hands and exhort our fellow-citizens to a similar confidence and trust.

LATER.

Since writing the above, we have heard that General Wheeler gave the enemy a severe drubbing whenever he encountered him. We have captured a considerable number of horses, and completely scattered the organization of the raiders. A very small portion of Waynesboro was burned, our cavalry having come up in time to stop the conflagration. We would recommend to Gen. Wheeler a trick of Gen Forrest—that is, to toss every incendiary Yankee caught at his rascality into the flames he had evoked.

We are told that the Georgia Railroad is being rapidly repaired, and hope ere long to see our good folks buying through-tickets to what was once Atlanta.

As we write, the shouts of multitudinous veterans, freshly arrived, clamor along the streets. The cry is "still they come!"

[Special Correspondence of the Constitutionalist.]

SPARTA, Ga., Nov. 25, 1864.

The enemy have crossed the bridge at Milledgeville in force, infantry, artillery and cavalry. Several hundred of the latter came up the Sparta road, to within twelve miles of this place. The infantry and artillery went down the Sandersville road in very large force. It is doubtless two corps of the enemy, numbering, according to Texas scouts, who have followed them from Atlanta, about sixteen thousand. They had not burned the State House when our informant left, and no private buildings. The Penitentiary, Arsenal, &c., was burned. Our authorities should look to Millen. There is a lower route to Sparta by the Sandersville road. They may possibly take this and still come by Sparta; but we think Sandersville, Millen and Savannah will be their route. This information is by a true lady, raised in this county, who came through from Milledgeville on horse back to-day.

From the Chronicle and Sentinel, Nov. 29.

FROM CENTRAL RAILROAD.—Nothing definite has been learned from Central Railroad since Saturday.

The whereabouts of the main forces of Sherman's army is not known. At last accounts they were at Sandersville.

FROM UP THE ROAD.—Advices received from up the road last night states that there were no Yankees within ten miles of the road.

It is also stated that the party of Yankees which appeared at Waynesboro on Sunday, is the same party which passed near Warrenton and through Louisville on Saturday.

FACTORY BURNED.—We learn that the Federals destroyed the Factory at Seven Islands, in Butts county, belong to the Messrs. Whites.

FROM THE GEORGIA RAILROAD.—Trains are running up as far as Greensboro, on the Georgia Road. As far as can be heard from, there are no rumors of the Yankees.

The factory near Covington was not burned. Mr. Harris, one of the proprietors, lost about $140,000 of property, by the enemy camping on his plantation.

The people in Newton and DeKalb counties are suffering for salt, and it is to be hoped that the Georgia Road will be extended to Stone Mountain in order to afford them relief.

FROM NEWTON COUNTY, GA.—A gentleman from Newton County states that several of the large plantations in that several section were completely destroyed by the Federals, swept clean of every thing, and all the houses thereon burned—except those occupied by negroes.

Emory College, Oxford was also destroyed, and all the buildings connected with same, together with their contents. This college was the property of the Methodist church of this State. Several fine libraries belonging to the various college societies, besides the one belonging to the college itself, were among the property burned. Also a large and extensive Mineralogical cabinet, fine chemical apparatus, &c.

As the Federals approached the town they were fired upon and one of their party killed. The college was burned in retaliation.

It is estimated that the property cost nearly half a million before the war.

RECRUITING AS HE GOES.—It has been stated by some that Sherman did not interfere with the negroes along his route. Gentlemen, however, who reside in the section he has passed through, say that he has swept all the plantations he has been able to visit of every negro man who was able to do military service.

It is also said that he has no negro troops with him. These were sent to garrison forts in his rear before he left Atlanta. If the negro troops had been marched through Georgia, it would undoubtedly have taken double their number of white troops to have prevented them from deserting from the ranks.

FROM BELOW.

A party of Yankees made their appearance at Waynesboro', on Saturday night. It is said that they captured a freight train which they burned; and that they also burnt the place. The passenger train which left the night previous was turned back.

We are informed that a Yankee telegraphic operator undertook to gain information of the number of forces in this vicinity, and the whereabouts of the same from the operator in this city. But the operator interrogated knew at once that there was a new "hand at the machine" at the first touch, and of course shaped his replies accordingly.

It is reported that the commander of the party is Kilpatrick and that a fight occurred between him and our forces under General Wheeler on Sunday. After a severe fight the Yankees were badly beaten and driven back.

The Macon Telegraph of the 24th gives the following account of the battle of Griswoldville Ga:

On Tuesday afternoon our forces under command of Gen. Phillips came upon the pickets of the enemy this side of Griswoldville. Our forces immediately deployed in line of battle and skirmishers were thrown forward. They drove in the pickets and then advancing upon the skirmish line, drove them steadily backwards through the town and two miles beyond, where they came upon the main body of the enemy strongly entrenched. Our men advanced boldly to the attack and a severe and protrated fight continued until dark, when our troops were ordered to fall back, which they did in the best order. No attempt was made by the enemy to follow.

We learn that the militia force behaved with distinguished gallantry, advancing upon the enemy's breastworks in perfect order and with no straggling. They charged through an open field to within fifty yards of the Yankee works and maintained their ground till ordered to withdraw.

The Athens battalion, commanded by Maj. Cook, and the Augusta battalion under Maj Jackson, both under the immediate orders of the former officer, were distinguished for the cool and steady manner in which they bore themselves in the battle. These troops, as well as the militia forces, acted like veterans, and faced the destructive fire of the enemy with as much firmness as could have been displayed by the heroes of Hood or Lee.

We have heard no estimate of the enemy's loss.

Important Papers Captured on the Florida.

Among the documents captured on board the Florida was the letter book of the commanding officer, containing his official reports from the first of this year, and his correspondence with officials of the several ports where he touched. One of the curious documents thus brought to light is a letter from Vice Admiral Hope, of the British Navy, referring to a case where the Florida had burnt an American ship, which was known to have taken out British papers only to protect itself. The Vice Admiral states emphatically British papers must under all circumstances protect the vessel holding them, and announces that he has issued orders to attack and capture any vessel that shall hereafter be guilty of the Florida's action. Other letters in the book reveal the constantly recurring troubles of the Florida in getting food, engineers in supplying itself with coals, and in making the necessary repairs. A letter written at Bahia, the day before the capture, asks the Brazilian authorities to have certain repairs made for him in the Government navy yard. One of the official reports sheds some light on the fate of the United States steamer Electric Spark, captured on her way from New York to New Orleans with mails, official dispatches, and a very valuable assorted cargo. The report says: "My first attention was to put in a prize crew and try to run into Wilmington, but my great difficulty was the want of a competent man to run her engines. I sent two of our best firemen abroad, but they were totally incompetent. Under these circumstances I deemed it best to sink her, but strove to give the passengers the idea that we had carried her off to make a tender of her, or had run her into Wilmington." Another letter transmits to Mason at London the captured diplomatic correspondence with the remark that perhaps he may find it useful. Among the other papers found on the Florida was the original letters communicating the thanks of our Government for the building of Red River dam last fall.

PRICES IN THE NORTH.—Prices of all kinds have advanced greatly in the North. Gold is 229 and more, which makes the Federal currency worth about forty cents on the dollar. Owing to this depreciation the necessaries of life and articles of all kinds have run up to the most extravagant prices. Cotton, which was before the war only some six or seven cents a pound, is now worth in New York a dollar and a quarter; common white shirting muslin, which used to be bought for ten to twelve cents a yard, prime quality, now brings fifty to sixty cents; sugar, which used to be bought for eight and 9 cents, sells now for twenty-five cents a pound; flour, which was a drudge in the market for five and six dollars, is scarcely to be had now for twelve and fifteen dollars a barrel; whiskey, which used to be thought high at two dollars a gallon, is worth now eight and ten; bread, formerly three and four cents a loaf, is now seven and eight cents, and the size diminished at that; hotels that used to charge two dollars a day are now asking five and six.

An accident occurred at Danville, Va., on Sunday morning last, by which Mr. F. Beavers, of Raleigh, an engineer, was killed. He fell from the tender of the engine, and was instantly crushed to death. The parents and relatives of the deceased have our sympathy in this, their sore affliction.

DAILY CONFEDERATE.

OLD SERIES, VOL. V. } RALEIGH, N. C. FRIDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1864. VOL. I—No. 263.

WHAT WAR TEACHES.—In the mouth of one of the noble characters, is the fragment of a Romance left by Thackery at his death, we find these striking words which have the lesson at this time:

"War teaches obedience and contentment under privations; it fortifies courage; it tests loyalty; it gives occasion for showing mercifulness of heart; moderation in victory; endurance and cheerfulness under defeat. The brave who do battle victoriously in their country's cause leave a legacy of honor to their children."

OUTRAGES OF DESERTERS, &c.—This morning's mail brought us letter from Montgomery and Surry counties which mentioned several robberies by small bands of lawless men. In Montgomery the house of Colonel John F. Cotton, among others, was robbed of a gun and a repeater, blankets, hats, clothing, &c. In Surry a citizen was robbed by a gang of 17, who came from the counties above. A company of the Home Guard pursued them, but whether successful or not our correspondent had not heard.—Fay. Observer.

LOSS OF A BLOCKADE RUNNER.—The steamer "Beatrice," from Nassau, got ashore on Sunday night during the fog near Sulivan's Island Beach. She was trying to make the Channel when she became surrounded by Yankee barges, which kept up a constant fire of grape and musketry on the vessel, preventing the officers and crew from getting the ship off after she grounded on the shoal. The Captain, Pilot and ten men, got ashore on Sullivan's Island in a boat; and it is feared that the balance of the crew, some thirty in number, have either been killed or captured.

The ship and cargo will be a total loss.—Char. Courier.

The house of Rufus M. Edney, Esq., at Edneyville, Henderson county, was visited on Sunday night last by 25 or 30 armed men, and plundered of four or five thousand dollars worth of property. They shot at Mr. Edney some eight or ten times, but he escaped uninjured. This is the second or third "levy" that has been made upon him. Henderson and Transylvania counties seem to be pretty effectually in the hands of the "free dealers."—Ashville News.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1864.

If we were to say that five hundred of those who voted for Mr. Fowle are disappointed in his course already, we should use a mild phrase. It was known that Mr. Fowle was a Conservative, and it was expected that he would be a Conservative leader. We said as much during the campaign. But we who strive to elevate the interests of the cause and country above all considerations, did expect of Mr. Fowle that he would lend his aid to strengthen the military force by which the enemy is to be resisted; and we thought Mr. Fowle to be of so calm and deliberate a habit of thinking, that he would at once perceive that out of the useless and unnecessary State officers, was the reinforcement first and most properly to come. But we confess wholly to have misapprehended Mr. Fowle. Along with the most stringent and determined opponents of putting in the State officers, Mr. Fowle has ranged himself, side by side, with Gov. Vance and Dr. Grissom, in front of the Conservative majority. Mr. Fowle seems to prefer to keep the Senior Reserves, the old men between 45 and 50, the farmers, in the trenches and on the battle field, while, "quite a number of State officers," within the conscript ages, "who are eating the bread of ease and idleness," are still to be covered with the shield of Legislative protection. The Conservative party seems determined to test the patience of the old men and farmers, to see how far it can force this class under arms and protect the young and able-bodied. We say this, because nearly every officer the Legislature has elected, is under the age; because it rejects the resolution of Mr. Person to find out what State officers can be dispensed with, and that of Mr. Love which proposed to repeal the present exemptions; and the leaders of the Conservative party declare (Mr. Fowle and Dr. Grissom, for example) the former, that "he never would consent that the hand of the Confederate Government should be laid upon a single State officer;" and the latter, that "the Confederate Government should not take a single officer from North Carolina."

There are by this time near 14,000 State officers in North Carolina exempt from conscription—about 150 to a county. These are all men within the conscript age, and in good physical condition. While they are thus exempt, there are some thousands of old men between 45 and 50, many of whom are small farmers, who are necessarily called to the field to take the place that these exempts ought to occupy. Out of these 14,000 exempts, ten thousand could be spared and still leave enough State officers to discharge all the necessary duties of Government. Who is responsible for the old men's being called out? and who keeps them out, in the trenches and on the march? The conservative party of North Carolina with Gov. Vance, Mr. Fowle, Dr. Grissom and others at their head. These are they who appoint fourteen thousand young men to office, and then exempt them.

Let the people keep the record:—"No matter how small the officer, or insignificant the man," Mr. Fowle says, he would never consent that the hand of the Confederate Government should be laid upon a single State officer" He will neither abolish the small office or let go the insignificant man; but he will see the Senior Reserves ordered off out of the State—to Georgia, perhaps—and their farms left unfended, rather than abolish some petty night watch, who sleep upon the corners of the streets in small villages, or some pump builder who has contracted to make water for a town corporation, or supernumerary constables, of whom the name is legion, created expressly to keep out of the war, in districts that have not known their existence for years; and coroners, enough of them to have sat on every Yankee death from the yellow fever which occurred the last summer in old Newbern.

Well, we commend Mr. Fowle's record to the public. Not as we would have it, but as he chooses to make it. It may do for "this side of the house," or "our side of the house," is Mr. Fowle is accustomed to style his place of sitting; but we apprehend that the people when they come to understand it, will conclude with us that Mr. Fowle has made a lamentable mistake for himself and for his country.

Legislative Summary.

Jonathan Worth, Esq., was yesterday re-elected Public Treasurer. Three unsuccessful ballots for Secretary of State were had, and two for C. S. Senator.

In the Senate, an adverse report was made on the Governor's recommendation to impose a State money tax and tithe in kind, for the relief of soldiers families.

In the House, bills were passed, for the relief of North Carolina prisoners of war, and to incorporate the N. C. Company of Chemists, and a bill reported to suppress the Government distillery at Salisbury.

George Mills Joy, the Yankee, who run away from Newbern during the yellow fever, has returned, and in his paper of the 26th November, he gives an account of the deaths by that disease. In it he corrects the statement which we had been pleased to hear, that the 15th Connecticut regiment had lost 15 000. He says that they only lost 59. Joy's saying so, is no evidence of the truth; for Joy is a thorough bred Yankee. But if it is so, why we must moderate our satisfaction, and be thankful for small favors.

"And the rains descended and the floods came."

The Legislature seems bent upon instructing the President how to proced in obtaining peace. Several series of resolutions have been presented, all making requests of President Davis. Mr. Pool led off in this discreet and profitable legislation. Residing nearer than others to the enemy's lines, this gentleman initiated a proceeding to "avoid formal objections," (by which we presume he means to avoid formal objections" that Mr. Lincoln has to recognizing the Confederacy); his plan is for six States to elect five Commissioners each, to act as a medium. Col. Bryson of Macon, has presented a series which are somewhat different from Mr. Pool's, though subject to the same objections; and Mr. Fowle, not to be outdone, has presented his series. Mr. Fowle's resolutions avoid many of the objections to the other two sets, but like the others, they are wholly impracticable, and add so much to time misspent. The Georgia Legislature was similarly engaged—when all of a sudden, the Yanks, with Sherman at their head, pounced on Milledgeville, and sent resolutions, members, speakers and the Governor, all a kiting.

The whirlwind is said to have scattered whole quires of peace resolutions through the air for miles around; while members were pushed with such propulsion, that it was impossible to "fetch them up" at Macon; and it is presumed they are by this time safe in the dominions of the "Duke of Sonora"—the late Dr. Gwynnn.

Gov. J. Brown is said to be "cut off:" but at which end—of the line—is not stated.—It turns out that the Yankees are as much surprised at the effects of the storm as we are; for they were led to advance on Milledgeville, by the expectation that the resolution peace men would be more resolute than to fly away from them.

The News.

Our Richmond and Augusta exchanges come to hand yesterday. We give copious extracts from the latter in other columns, from which we learn that some of Sherman's raiding parties have been handsomely repulsed and scattered, and many prisoners taken. Our Georgia cotemporaries, it will be seen, are buoyant and hopeful that Sherman will be brought to grief before reaching his ocean base.

The Richmond papers of the 29th, say all was quiet on the north side of James river on yesterday. There was considerable shelling of Dutch gap by our batteries, and it was reported that General Pickett, from his lines south of Battery Howlett, had also opened with his cannon upon the enemy in his front, who are believed to be mostly negroes. It is also said that picket firing has been actively resumed on this part of the lines.

It was reported on yesterday that Grant had sent off a considerable body of troops to cooperate with Sherman in Georgia, and to aid that General in reaching and establishing a base on the Atlantic coast. We do not vouch for this rumor, but must say there is nothing improbable in it. Still, we think it more likely that Grant is mustering his forces for an early demonstration on General Lee than scattering them to aid Sherman.

The Dispatch of the 30th says that, on the picket lines between the James and Appomattox rivers, the enemy put negroes on picket on the 29th. As soon as our troops discovered this arrangement, they opened upon the negroes and drove them in at a run. General Parke, the Yankee commander on this part of the line, then sent out white pickets, when quiet was restored.

FROM PETERSBURG.

During the past two days a good deal of unimportant skirmishing and cannonading has taken place on the Petersburg lines. About one o'clock on Monday, our troops on General Mahone's line captured sixty of the Yankee pickets in their front.

The Petersburg Express of yesterday contains an account of the capture of the Hon. Roger A. Pryor by the enemy under the following circumstances: Mr. Pryor who, for some time past, has been acting as an independent scout, went out on the lines on Monday morning to exchange papers with the Yankees. He advanced, waving a paper, as it is the custom in such cases, and a Yankee officer came out and met him. As he went on his way back into our lines, several Yankees sprung from an ambush and seized and carried him off a prisoner. A number of our men witnessed the affair but, from too great a distance to be able to render any assistance. While this is undoubtedly a piece of treachery on the part of the enemy, it must, we fear, be submitted to. Mr. Pryor's going forward to exchange papers was an unofficial act, not warranted, that we have learned by any truce or treaty with the enemy. The exchange of papers along the lines is a thing which has existed only by the sufferance of the belligerents, to be broken up at the pleasure of either party.

On the memorable resolutions of Dr. J. T. Leach, lately rejected by the House of Representatives—only Mr. Turner, Mr. Logan and Dr. Leach voting against the rejection Messrs. Lt. Col. J M. Leach, Dr. Ramsay and Mr. Fuller had, in the first place, also voted against the rejection; but after seeing the significant exposure presented by the House, they "changed their base." Whereupon, the Lt. Colonel announced that there was not one of them who would negotiate for less than independence.

Dr. J. T. Leach is a much more "honest" politician than Lt. Col. J. M. Leach.

A party of East Tennessee tories made a raid upon Bakersville, in Yancey county, on the 19th cst. Jackson Stewart, was killed, having seven balls shot through him, and sixteen militiamen carried off. A large amount of property was destroyed and carried off.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA.

SENATE.

THURSDAY, Dec. 1st, 1864.

Proceedings were opened with prayer by Rev. Dr. Craven, of the Methodist church.

After the reading of the journal, messages were received from the House, announcing the House branch of the Select Joint Committee on Confederate relations, and asking the concurrence of the Senate in an election for Secretary of State.

Mr. Patterson of Burke, nominated Hon. John A. Gilmer for the office of Confederate States Senator.

Mr. Wiggins of Halifax, from the Committee on Finance, reported the results of an inspection of the State banks, and a bill to repeal the requirement of counting the money of the same.

The Committee on Corporations reported, recommending that it do pass, a bill to incorporate the Wilson Academy.

Mr. Odom, from the Joint Select Committee on Tithing and Money Tax, reported that it was deemed inexpedient to impose such mixed tax, and begged to be discharged from laying such a mixed tax at present, for divers reasons, and begging to be discharged from the further consideration of the same.

An election for Secretary of State having been gone into, the result was declared as follows:

Williams 60, Richardson 41, Bain 37, Farribault 22, Huske 3, and Dunn 6. No election.

A second ballot resulted: Farribault 49, Richardson 40 Williams 28, Bain 18, Huske 13, and Dunn 4. No election.

On the third ballot, Mr. Williams being withdrawn and Mr. Bethune put in nomination by the House, the vote stood Bethune 56, Richardson 40, Farribault 39, Bain 7, Huske 4, and Dunn 4. Still no reelection.

The Senate concurring in the House proposition to go into the election of a Public Treasurer, Jonathan Worth, Esq., the present officer, was elected.

On the joint election for Confederate States Senator, there was no result attained on the first ballot; and pending the announcement of the vote on the second ballot, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

The House branch of the Joint Select Committee on Confederate Relations, was announced, as follows: Messrs. Fowle, Cunningham, Hanes, Love, and Allison.

The Finance Committee reported resolutions to ascertain from the Governor the expenses of executing the C. S Conscription act in this State, and of apprehending deserters, and to direct Major Dowd to pay over the sum of $2,272,990 into the State Treasury.

The Committee on Corporations reported a bill to incorporate the Fayetteville Enterprise Cotton Company with recommendation that it do pass, as amended.

The Judiciary Committee reported a bill to suppress the C S. distillery at Salisbury, with a recommendation that it pass; bills for the suppression of small pox, and to punish persons joining the enemy, with recommendation that they do not pass, the latter being wrong and violative in its contemplated provisions of certain C S. laws; and bills to authorize the removal of criminal causes from threatened localities, and to relieve persons acquitted of crimes of the payment of costs, asking to be discharged from the further consideration thereof.

The Joint Select Committee on Salt, reported that the State salt works at Wilmington should be removed to Lockwood Fall Inlet, in Brunswick county; that $100,000 be appropriated thereto; that the proposed contract for a supply of salt with Stuart, Buchanan & Co. is an advantageous one; and that $200,000 be appropriated to expedite the transfer of salt from Saltville, Va., to this State. The House refused to suspend the rules for the passage of the bill, but on motion, ordered that the report be printed and made the special order for Monday next, at 11, a. m.

Mr. Little of Richmond, introduced a bill to allow citizens of North Carolina in the C. S. Naval service, the same bounties as those given in the land forces.

Mr. Caldwell of Guilford, moved the Governor be requested to furnish the correspondence between himself and Gen. Whiting, relative to the salt works at Wilmington. So ordered, but on motion of the original mover, the vote was re-considerad and the subject laid on the table.

The following bills and resolutions were then put upon their third readings, and severally passed: Bills to incorporate the Bingham School; the North Carolina Company of Chemists; the Orphan Educational Association, and the Ocknock Iron Works; to relieve North Carolina prisoners of war; to allow twenty-one Magistrates of Wake county to transact all county business therein; to authorize the issue of certain coupon bonds, and to permit the chief clerk of the Treasury to endorse certain coupon bonds in the absence of the Treasurer; also, resolutions to remit fines to A. J. McBride, sheriff of Watauga county, and to D. M. Rea, tax collector in Madison.

After two unsuccessful ballots for Secretary of State, the hour of twelve having arrived, the Speaker announced that the election of a Confederate States Senator was the special order for that hour, and the House proceeded thereto: Messrs. Reade, Ashe, Dortch, Caldwell, Morehead, Gilmer and Smith being in nomination. The first ballot resulted as follows: Mr. Reade 64 votes, Mr. Dortch 40, Mr. Gilmer 15 Mr. Ashe 11, Mr. Smith 9, Mr. Morehead 8, Messrs. Shepherd and Carter 1 each,

The whole number of votes cast being 157, 79 being necessary to a choice, there was no election.

On a message being received from the Senate, asking their concurrence therein, the House proceeded to the election of a Secretary of State. Mr. Morrisey nominated David Bethune, of Robeson, and Mr. Williams being withdrawn, with the following results: Bethune 56, Richardson 40, Farribault 39, Bain 7, Huske 4 and Dunn 4. No election.

The Senate concurring, the House then went into an election for Public Treasurer, Jonathan Worth, Esq., being nominated, and elected without opposition.

Pending the announcement of the result on a second ballot for Confederate States Senator, the House adjourned.

A private letter, says the South Carolinian, from Augusta, Ga., dated the 29th, speaks thus encouragingly:

We think now we are safe here—any how we are ready, and all under arms. Bragg and a large force of good troops leave to-night for —— to join Hardee and destroy the enemy. Wayne has had to leave the Oconee, and has fallen back to a point where he will find Bragg and Hardee. And Sherman must now fight if he comes our way.

Confederate Congress.

SENATE.

TUESDAY, Nov. 26, 1864.

Mr. Semmes, from the Committee on Finance, asked to be discharged from the further consideration of the joint resolution relative to the assessment of the value of the tax in kind, and reported a bill declaring the mode of ascertaining the value of the tithe deliverable to the Government under the existing laws. Read first and second time and ordered to be printed.

[The bill provides that, in case of disagreement between the assessor and tax payer, the value is to be assessed and ascertained by disinterested freeholders of the vicinage, in the same manner as is estimated the amount of the crops or articles subject to the tax in kind.]

Mr. Walker, from the Committee on Judiciary, reported back, with amendments, Senate bill to prevent illegal impressments and to prevent illegal impressments, which were ordered to be printed.

Senate bill to amend an act to increase the efficiency of the army by the employment of free negroes and slaves in certain capacities, was taken up, and, on motion of Mr. Sparrow, was recommitted to the Committe on Military Affairs.

Senate bill declaring four per cent. bonds and certificates therefore receivable in payment of all taxes due and payable for the year 1864, was taken up and passed.

The special order, being the joint resolutions introduced by Mr. Henry, of Tennessee, defining the position of the Confederate States, and declaring the determination of the Congress and the people thereof to prosecute the war till their independence is acknowledged, was taken up, and Mr Henry addressed the Senate at length in support of the joint resolutions.

On the conclusion of his remarks,

On motion of Mr. Haynes, of Tenn., with the concurrence of his colleague, the resolutions were referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The House took up and passed the pending bill to increase the salary of the clerk of the Confederate District Court of the Eastern District of Virginia.

Mr. Russell reported from the Judiciary Committee a bill to increase the salary of Judge Halyburton to $10,000.

Mr. Chilton, of Alabama, reported from the Judiciary Committee the Supreme Court bill, which was ordered to be printed and made a continuing special order.

Mr. Russell moved to go into secret session.

Mr. Orr said, to test the matter, he would call the yeas and nays, which were ordered, and resulted as follows:

YEAS—Messrs. Anderson, Atkins, Baylor, Blandford, Bradley Branch, Bridgers, E. M. Bruce, H. W. Bruce, Chambers, Chilton, Clark, Cluskey, Colyar, Conrow, Darden, DeJarnette, Dickinson, Dupre, Ewing, Foote Gholson, Hartridge, Hatcher, Herbert, Halliday, Johnston, Keeble, Kenner, Lyon, Machen, McCallum, McMullen, Montague, Norton, Perkins, Read, Rives, Russell, Sexton, Triplett, Vest, Welsh, Wilkes, Mr. Speaker—45.

NAYS—Messrs. Akin, Ayer, Baldwin, Bell, Boyce, Clopton, Farrow, Foster, Fuller, Gaither, Garland, Gilmer, Hanly, Hilton, Holder, Lamkin, J. M. Leach, Lester, Logan, Marshall, Miles, Murray, Orr, Ramsay, Simpson, J. M. Smith, W. E. Smith, Smith of Alabama, Smith of North Carolina, Staples, Turner, Villere, Wickham, Witherspoon—34.

This was considered somewhat in the light of a test vote on the habeas corpus bill, now pending in secret session. Some seven or eight who voted for secret session will, it is said, vote against the bill.

The House having re-opened, adjourned.

CAMP 43D N. C. TROOPS,
Near New Market, Va., Nov. 25, 1864.

EDITORS CONFEDERATE: Will you please publish the following proceedings of a meeting of the officers of this regiment, and very much oblige them:

At a meeting of the officers of the 43d N. C. Regiment, which convened on the 15th inst. Capt. Whitaker was called to the Chair, and Adjt. Lacy appointed Secretary.

The Chairman appointed Lieut. Bridgers, Adjt. Lacy and Lieut. Farrior, a committee to draft resolutions expressive of the feelings of the officers in regard to the deaths of their brother officers during the past and present campaign. The committee reported the following resolutions, which were adopted:

Whereas, God, in His mysterious Providence, has seen fit to take from our midst our beloved and esteemed friends and brother officers, Capt. William Crawford Ousby, Capt. Henry Ailston Macon, Capt Levi Perkinson Coleman, Capt. Caswell Hammond Sturdivant, Lieut. Julius J. Alexander, Lieut. Thomas Wilson Baker, Lieut. William Willington Baggan, Lieut. Jesse Alston Macon, Lieut. Charles Vines, Lieut. George Whitaker Wills, Lieut. Stephen Wall Ellerbe, Lieut. Thomas H. Williams and Lieut. William Beavans; some in an instant on the battle field, some after being wounded and lingering painfully in our enemy's prisons, and others after suffering long from wounds in our own land: and whereas, He doeth all things for His own good purpose, therefore, be it

Resolved, 1st, That while we bow in humble submission to His will, yet in their deaths we have lost, personally, intimate and dear friends, and as a Regiment, brave and faithful officers, whose good examples and services we will ever remember.

2d. That we, now and hereafter cherish their memories and in doing so, emulate their virtues and strive to profit by their examples.

3d. That we tender our most sincere sympathies to their immediate families and friends, regarding and esteeming ourselves as their surviving brothers.

4th. That copies of these resolutions be sent to N. C. Presbyterian, Fayetteville Observer, N. C Christian Advocate, Watchman & Harbinger, Confederate, Biblical Recorder, and Western Democrat, with the request to publish, and that they be placed upon our Regimental order books.

The resolutions having been adopted, and no other business being before the officers, the meeting adjourned sine die.

CARY WHITAKER, Chm'n.
DRURY LACY, JR., Sec'y.

We have been requested by Mr. Colton to copy the subjoined Card, which we do with pleasure:

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., Nov. 28th,

J. B. NEATHERY, ESQ., Sir:

I notice in the Confederate newspaper this morning, an article stating that I was defeated for Chief Clerk of the House of Commons because I did not vote for Neill McKay, Esq., at the election in August last. This fact may have influenced some few persons, but the real cause of my defeat was, that I had repeatedly, on Saturday and Sunday, declare that I was not a candidate, as you yourself know, and only allowed my name to be run because I had some warm personal friends who would have voted for me under any event. Mr Tucker himself will bear witness to this fact.

In place of Mr. McKay, on the Conservative ticket, I voted for Lt. Wm. McNeill who was a personal friend, who in days gone by had stood by me as a brother in hours of deepest pain and sickness. If for this cause I was to be defeated, then I am proud of it, but it was not the case.

Again, I received for clerk, as it was, a majority of the Conservative members present—Mr. Tucker received all but four of the "Confederate" members present. Hence I was not ostracised by the Conservative party. A friend, not a member of the Legislature, but who has a relation there, told me that it was urged against me that I had not voted the whole Conservative ticket in Cumberland county. I was born a Whig; every blood relation I have on earth or dead, is or was a Whig, and if I am to be proclaimed as not a Conservative, I would like to see the man who calls himself one. The first and last votes I ever cast were for Gov. Vance, and if I live to be as old as my father (83 years) I will still act independently, and in the words of one whose "Life and Times" my blood relation had the honor to transmit to posterity, "I would rather be right than be President.'

Respectfully,
HENRY E. COLTON.

RESIGNATIONS.—2d Lieut. W. A Thompson, 23d N C Troops; 2d Lieut. John Hester, 45th N C. Troops; 2d Lieut. W B Field, 1st Cavalry; Capt. Jno. E. Bailey, 5th N. C. Troops; Capt. J. W. Gidney; 12th N. C. Troops.

Dr. D. M. Rogers, of the 62d N. C. regiment, laid on the table of the Ashville, N. C. News, an apple weighing one pound and a half! It is of the variety known as the "Sour Buff"—a most delicious fruit. It grew on his mother's farm, in Haywood county.

REPORTS OF THE PRESS ASSOCIATION.

Entered according to act of Congress in the year 1863, by J. S. THRASHER, in the Clerk's office of the District Court of the Confederate States for the Northern District of Georgia.

From Richmond,

RICHMOND, Nov. 30.—Official dispatches say, pickets report three monitors and land batteries engaged battery Howlett on yesterday. One monitor struck several times by our guns; two have withdrawn. No casualties on our side.

From the Valley.

RICHMOND, Nov. 30.—A special dispatch to the Whig, dated Mossey Creek, Nov. 28th, via Jonesboro' 30th, says Sherman has ordered every house in East Tennessee to be burned and the country desolated The Union citizens held indignation meetings at Knoxville, of which they notified Sherman, but he refused to receive the order. This information is derived from Union citizens from Knoxville. There is great excitement among the people. Current rumors say Cumberland Gap is evacuated and the troops gone to Knoxville.
